CLASS WILL JANUARY 1951

We, the Senior Class of January 1951, being on this day and this day only in a senible and sober state of mind, do hereby will and bequeath the valuables or otherwise which we have acquired during our five years of learning at this intellectual institution.

Bud Gray leaves, (stop crying girls) his female fan club to Jim Crean who looks like he needs some company.

Curis Hepler leaves his naturally red hair to Lorraine Gower who is trying to get the same effect from Lovalon.

Bob Hoeberling leaves his most prized possession (his car) to anyone who would rather push than walk.

Fred Herzberg leaves his good marks to Frank Cardello who just can't see staying home and studying.

Elaine Hoffer leaves her cheat sheets to Carl Berner who will probably have trouble getting out of the 10th grade.

Lawrence Keeton leaves as quietly as he came.

Ruth Kirk leaves her innocent act to Bob LaFollette who could certainly use a good one.

Richard Kniffel leaves Hazel Park High to try to start in the 12B at Madison.

Lois Leach leaves her shape to Charlotte Taylor--cops we forgot two wrongs never make a right.

Jean Ligi leaves to go into Nurse's training, she'll get her man---conscious or unconscious.

John Liston leaves with a rope around his neck--I wonder who's at the other end of the rope?

Dave MacKenzie leaves with Ray Miller -- Isn't that sweet?

Ken McGregor leaves his huge shoulder, broad chest, and graceful walk to Steve Zervas.

David Allen leaves, taking with him, his continental air--seeing that it didn't do him any good here anyway.

Gene Anderson leaves his ability to be a away from school most of the time and still graduate to Bob Plouffe who comes regulary and still has a hard time.

Kay Anderson leaves her quietness to Theresa Kaniara and associates who should try using some.

Barbara Beyers leaves her loud but innocent ways to Marlene Pearce to follow in her footsteps.

Bill Brown leaves his ability to not have a fight with his girl to Paul Clark who's having quite a time,

Joan Clark leaves Junior Richard behind hoping he can take care of himself now that she's gone.

Audrey Coleman leaves her quiet voice and charming manners to Mr. Clute.

Eileen Collins leaves her smile to Jim Patterson, who also uses Pepsodent.

Dorothy Carley leaves her typing ability to the Beginning typing class.

Beverly Danhouser leaves her know how to get a wedding ring to Ranette Sechler who's trying so hard Harold Dowling leaves a Box of Fire Crackers to Bill Simmons and his gang in hopes they'll get a bang out of life.

Jackie Eaker leaves, taking a fast plane to Florida-what's the matter, Jackie, didn't he come back this time?
Rose Marie Gannon leaves her ability to drive 90 miles an hour against the wind to Du Vaughn Springer.

Joyce Van Landingham leaves her Van to Mr. Richards who always forgets it anyway.

Gene Schnelz leaves (or should I say gives back) his jokes to Har.

Vera Sawyers leaves still chasing Eugene Pirl whether Gladys likes it or not.

Eugene Strube leaves still borrowing True Romances and never having one of his own.

Betty West leaves her voice to Winkle Ruskowski who could use a change.

Bob Williams leaves his quiet personality to Alex Novitsky. Any Questions?

Bill Wolfe leaves his last name to Al Saddle who certainly deserves a title.

Joanne Ruffi leaves her acquaintances from the Hub to Kathy Gibson and Rita Turmell who wish they had as many.

Doris Snowden leaves to begin keeping house for -here's one girl who will never be a nagging wife.

Dave Staddle goes as timid as he came not effected by the Hazel Park "fillies".

Stan Van Buskirk leaves his wizard style Brain to Al Nichaporuk, not that he needs it, Stan just has nothing else he can spare.

Ken Strube leaves, still not the Casanova that Tom Tabor considers himself.

Pat Snell leaves her modest ways and character to Luckie Hurtt who could use something other than conceit.

Betty Wilmouth leaves her ability to tell a joke, mess up the punch line, and still get a laugh to Ralph Powell who only gets snickers.

Chris Rockey leaves her favorite answer to any Question which is, "George all the way".

Don Kunse leaves for the second time, trying to set a record, Don?

Edith McQuady leaves early tonight so she can study for an entrance exam, (into the army).

Bruce Miller leaves his Tit Tat Toe ability to Bill Wood,

Ray Miller leaves with the hearts of all the under-grade girls, don't think he won't miss school.

Russell Morgan leaves his motorcycle to Doyle Mc Intosh who uses the no car excuse for not taking out girls.

Barbara Mulvany leaves -- but she just got here.

"Tillie" Nahra leaves still murmuring, "The Gray Prayer"--God bless that little Devil

Jim Needham doesn't leave, he is still standing at Barb Beyer's front door wondering, "Isn't she ever going to kiss me good night?"

Mike Nichiporuk leaves his lavender shirt to Johnny Sherrand. You don't have to wear a tie with this one Johnny.

Virginia Oakes leaves still telling all the girls around her locker (to the tune of Sentimental Me)'I think I'll break up with John tonight, I didn't get my own way last night".

Brook Pearce leaves, but don't worry--there is still Mary Ann, Maxine, and Marlene to carry on the Pearce Line. Bob Pelke leaves, wishing the orations he gives his girls were as well accepted as the ones he gives behind the speaker's stand.

Don Shields leaves his role as hero and lover in the plays to Jim Butcher and Al Falcone who never seem to master the part.

Jim Riggs just leaves, because he needs everything he has got.

We, the undersigned, do hereby declare this to be our last Will and Testament and request that they be used in the proper manner.

JUNE CLASS OF 51 HISTORY

Six years ago, when we seniors entered the Lacey Junior High School, we were fascinated by the great size of the school, with its gym, our own lockers, and many other things that we never had had before in the grade schools.

After spending an enjoyable year at Lacey, we were transferred to the high school. As eighth graders we had to take all sorts of insults from the upper classmen, who laughed at the way we scurried to our classes, clutching our books tightly. We couldn't wait until we passed, so that we, in turn, could "dish it out" for a change.

In addition to having our own lockers and a modern gym, we now had a swimming pool and an up-to-date library, more enjoyable classes, and a representative in the student council, Chris Powell, who has since left us.

In 1947, we passed into the ninth grade. Now we were full-fledged high school students, and thus we embarked on the happiest period in our lives; our high school days. For the first time, we were given the right to elect our own class officers. To make sure that we got off to a good start, we elected Alex "Friendly Philosopher" Novitaky as our President; Jim English as our Vice-President; Myrna McConnell as our Secretary, but for reasons beyond Myrna's control she could not continue as secretary so Charlotte Taylor took over her duties; and Josephine Fantausso as our Treasurer. We now had Doyle McIntosh representing us in the student council.

Cora Jean Moore and Doyle McIntosh were chosen as King and Queen of our class that same year. Dora Miller started out on her long and illustrious career as a debator. In the coming years, much fame and glory were to come to our school as a result of Dora's fine performances.

In the field of acting, a few of the more ambitious members of our class got an early start on their acting careers by getting parts in both of the plays in that year, "Ann of Green Gables" and "Tiger House".

We entered the first semester with our class officers being as follows: President, Alex Novitzsky; Vice-President, Jim English; Secretary, Charlotte Taylor; Treasurer, Josephine Fantauzzo; and representing our class in the student council were Doyle McIntosh, Howard Wiley, and Betty Ladd.

"I Remember Mama" was the play that many of us enjoyed during the first semester. Twelve persons from our class were in the cast of this play and many were working behind the scenes.

Yes, our class was active. As members of the various clubs, in athletics, and in schoolwork our class strove to do the best it could. One of our class activities was that of collecting dues of ten cents a week to help us in the future.

As the football season passed, we knew that the varsity football team had done it again—for the third straight year they went through the season without winning one game. Although this meant that our class, during its high school stay, had not seen a varsity football team win a game—we still looked with hopeful eyes to the following year. Al Ravenscroft was then elected captain of the Cross Country Team.

The patient and capable advisors for our class at that time were; Miss. Titsworth, chairman; Miss. Davis, Miss. Schlichtman, Mrs. Moore, Miss. Oberman, and Mr. Clute.

Dora Miller represented our class on the varsity debate team. Doyle McIntosh and Gioria Jackson were king and queen of our class that year.

During that second semester we saw an upper classman, John Katsoulas, win a $2500 scholarship in the Michigan High School Forensic Association contest.

In order to improve our class scholastically, the homerooms had a contest from April to the end of the semester. Miss Davis's homeroom won.

For the second semester the play that most of saw was John Loves Mary with seven people from our class in the cast, and as usual many classmates worked behind the scenes.

Representing Hazel Park at the Third National Dramatic Arts Conference, which was held at the University of Indiana, were four members from our class: Bernice Pinchon, Ranette Sechler, Jim English, and Alex Novita-

Yes, summer was here and we now realized that we had come to the halfway mark and prepared ourselves to go the final half.

When school began again in September we had lost many of our classmates, who had turned the ripe age of 16 and quit school to start out on their own. Our officers were Terry Rowland, President; Tome Carrothers, Vice-President; Gloria Jackson, Secretary; and Josephine Fantuazzo, Treasurer. Our student council representatives were Doyle McIntosh, Howard Wiley, and Betty Ladd. To keep us on the straight and narrow road we voted Miss. Titsworth, Miss. Weller, Mrs. Willick, Miss. Lombard, and Mr. Ripmaster as our advisor. Miss. Schlichtman replaced Mr. Ripmaster later.

Members of our class took part in everything that came our way.

In Varsity Sports our lettermen were: Jim Butcher, Doyle McIntosh, Jerry Sutinen, Don Bowman, Tom Carrothers, Terry Rowland, and Bob Plouffe in football, Al Falcone, Jim Butcher, and Doyle McIntosh in basketball. Bob Waldron, Howard Wiley, Jim Butcher, and Bob Pouffe in baseball. Mark Moehring, Al Ravenscroft, Art Richards, and Howard Wiley in track. George Mohyla, and Jim Ainsworth in swimming, Al Ravenscroft in cross country, and Doyle McIntosh in golf.

Dora Miller and Jim English were our debators.

As for dramatics, well, that was even a greater collection of names and faces. In the play "You Can't Take It With You," Charlotte Taylor had the lead as a "My friend Irms type" mother; Jim English was her equally loveable husband; and their children, were tow entirely different types. Bernice Pinchon was the charming, sensible one of the family, while Ranette Sechler, layed aside her pride to be a ballet dancer. The spring play, was a horse of a different color, with Jim English, Ranette Sechler, and Bernice Pinchon, portrayed the leading characters, while Theresa Kaniars, Jerry Sutinen, Alex Novitzsky, Joan Jackson, Betty Ladd, Bob Waldron, Bill Brook, and Mary Ann Bacalia took part also. This doesn't include the important back-stage workers who get things in order so we could put on the plays.

The National Thespian Society was initiated that year to further dramatics in Hazel Park. The first officers were Charlotte Taylor, President; Ranette Sechler, Secretary; and Bernice Pinchon, Treasurer. Who said this isn't a woman's world.

A few of our classmates were initiated into the National Honor Society. There were Alex Novitzsky, Bernice Pinchon, Dora Miller, Doyle McIntosh, Roward Wiley, Betty Ladd, and Josephine Fantausso.

Our Coronation Ball was a success. The gym was beautifully decorated. The King and Queen of the school and incidently our class King and Queen, were Dierdre Batchelder and Al Falcone. The June Prom was held at the Dearborn Inn and everything was perfect. Even though it rained, it was quite comforting for the girls to know that they had someone to turn to if they were struck by lightening. Ruth Bilbrey, a 1950 June graduate, and Ranette Sechler sang during the intermission, and Alex Novitzsky did a skit. Juanita Grace was Daisey Mae at the Sadie Hawkins dance which was given by the 1951 January Class that year, too,

The generally suddessful year came to a close, but there was regret in our hearts for a fellow classmate, Edel Perkins, who passed away the summer before, and Mrs. Sink, a member of the faculty, who taught most of us our 8th grade math, who passed away during Thanksgiving Vacation.

We were really growing up; some of the girls even became engaged.

Our officers for the twelfth grade are: Terry Rowland, President; Tom Carrothers, Vice-President; Gloria Jackson, Secretary; and Josephine Fantausso, Treasurer. Student Council representatives are Howard Wiley, President; Doyle McIntosh, Vice-President; Betty Ladd, Secretary; and Jim English and Richard Moxley.

Our class advisors this year were: Mis. Titsworth, Miss. Schalm, Mrs. Willick, and Mr. McCloy and Mr.

Luthus.

We started our senior year with thoughts about graduation. Everybody was thinking about the class trip, which took place on May 27-30. We journeyed by boat to Mackinaw Island.

This year the senior girls started the Girls Athletis Association with Betty Goldtrap, President; Yvonne Boyd, Vice-President; Evelyn Dwyer, Treasurer; Juanita Weber, Secretary.

During our senior year our football team won its first game in four and a half years.

The lettermen of this year were: Jim Butcher, Doyle McIntosh, Tom Carrothers, Don Bowman, Howard Wiley, Al Ravenscroft, Mark Moehring, Terry Rowland, Bob Waldron, Al Falcone, Bill Robb, George Mohyla, Alex Novitzsky, Jim Ainsworth, Jerry Sutinen, Art Richards, and Chuch McGhee.

Tennis and wrestling, new sports, have been added this year.

Our class did very well scholastically with Betty Ladd and Josephine Fantauzzo leaving all A records.

We have 14 persons in the National Honor Society. They are: Doyle McIntosh, President; Howard Wiley, Vice president; Gall Corser, Secretary; Bernice Pinchon, Treasurer; Dora Miller, Alex Novitzsky, Betty Ladd, Yvonne Boyd, Jeanne Deleruyelle, Cynthia Stone, Carol Mitchell, Fred Gomes, Mark Moehring, and Ranette Sechler.

Betty Ladd and Jeanne Deleruyelle were chosen Co-Editors of the Viking. Assisting on the staff are: Angelo DeSantis, Art Editor; George Dzendzel, Assist; Fred Gomes; Photographer; Gail Corser, Society Editor; Yvonne Boyd, Sports Editor; Valerie Palm, Proof-Reader; Cynthia Stone, and Ann Zarkis, Copywriters; Katherine Weigandt, Sales Manager; Alberta Bubar and Janette Anderson, Typists; Bill Brook, Ralph Powell, Advertising; with Miss. Schalm and Mr. McCloy as advisors.

Our King and Queen for the Coronation Ball were, Terry Rowland and Joan Jackson, with Terry being chosen the the King of the school.

Several members of our class participated in the school plays of this year; these plays were, "Smilln' Thru'" and "All My Sons,"

Dora Miller, Ken Courtney, Tom Carrothers, Bill Brook and Jim English were the debators this year. And so we end our last year of high school withour class motto, "We finish to begin."
